

If reports are true regarding the plans of Sinclair Broadcasting to preempt regular programming to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election without airing an anti-Bush documentary, this media group must be subjected to careful scrutiny, as it seems likely to be in violation of federal law and should risk foreclosure of its broadcast licenses. All Americans should be incensed that a media corporation would attempt to pass off as news programming what is clearly editorial opinion programming intended to "break" the election.